

If students get this message when using the Mail app, follow these steps.

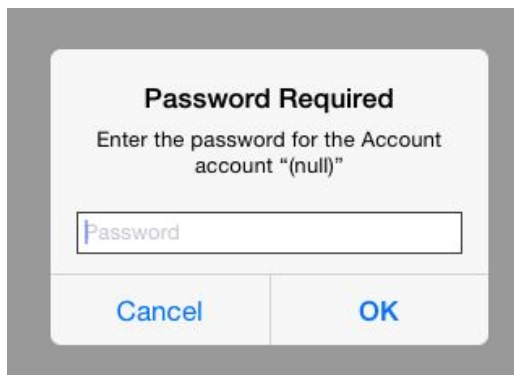

1. Open the Mail app, and start composing an email to anyone (the pencil/paper looking icon is in the upper right-hand corner of the window). Tap Send.

2. Students will then get this pop-up window. They need to type in their student ID numbers (lunch numbers), and Tap OK.

3. Students may get another pop-up window. They will need to type in their student numbers again, and tap OK.

4. Tap the Inbox back button a few times to trigger the Inbox to load all of the messages.
